

The church of Jesus Christ

He built His church, Acts 2.

Jesus is head of His church, Ephesians 1:21-23.

The church is scripturally called the “church of Christ,” Romans 16:16.

Those who are baptized for the remission of sins are admitted to His church, Acts 2:47.

No one has the right to change, add to, delete , or legislate laws for His church, Revelation 22:18.

His church is not a denominational church. Those churches are different than the New Testament pattern, 2 Timothy 1:13.

Non-denominal churches are not His church. The pattern is different than the New Testament, Hebrews 8:5.

Recipes produce items as planned. Jesus’ church is patterned after His instruction in the New Testament, Acts 20:28.
